

CRIME AND SPY NOVELS

The Shadow Routine

Jules Nemo

Camille, a young DGSE analyst, takes part in her first field operation: dealing with a walk-in, a mole who voluntarily offers his services in return for payment. At stake are the secrets of Iran's nuclear program. But the operation, complex and sent to the four corners of the world, went wrong. By a former DGSE agent.

The Defamed

Thierry Joumard des Achards

February 1446, Périgord. In the crypt of his ancestors, Audouin V attends the funeral of his murdered uncle and godfather. From that moment on, he will never rest until he finds the murderers of this uncle, feared and cursed by so many...

At a time when the kingdom is trying to free itself from the English yoke, and under the impetus of the Valois kings, France is gradually emerging from feudalism, Audouin V embarks on a long quest punctuated by troubling murders. But can justice be served when vengeance is rooted in the horrors of the Hundred Years' War?

Deal

6

A former atypical player in the French drug trade, “6” delivers his first novel with Deal. The raw reality of drug trafficking, drug-dealer squabbles and gang wars in France... An endearing hero, in high school at the beginning of the story, who learns to survive any situation. In the great tradition of American noir novels written by former thugs: Pimp by Iceberg Slim, No Beast So Fierce by Edward Bunker... An original, gritty, hard-hitting style.
